P. J. DWYER FORESEES GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN NEW YORK RACING CONDITIONS.

Veteran Owner of Gravesend and Aqueduct Tracks Expresses Idea That New York Seasons Will Be Lengthened Next Year.

New York, April 4.—"Yes, racing is gradually coming back to us." said Phil J. Dwyer, owner of the Gravesend and Aqueduct tracks, in an interview. "Everything points to a big season around New York, but this does not mean that the associations are going to declare big dividends_next winter, or that the earnings will ever be as big as they were up to seven years ago. But;" continued Mr. Dwyer, "we can expect enough public support to make it worth our while to offer good stakes. We made expenses last year at Aqueduct." Mr. Dwyer then talked of his recent visit to the Gravesend track and of the number of good stakes. We made expenses last year at Aqueduct." Mr. Dwyer then talked of his recent visit to the Gravesend track and of the number of good stakes what at these conditions, and it indicates a good season and those conditions, and it indicates a good season and the properties of the same of the properties of the properties of the properties of the racing and that there are more horses at the local track than we have had in several years."

"Do you think the time is near when all the local race courses will be in operation again?" he was asked.

"Well, I can't answer that offhand," replied Mr. Dwyer, "but we must expect application for dates from all of them if things continue to go along as well as at present, Of course, just now it would be rather hard to give everyhody dates because of the face in the properties of the more liberal policy that prevails at those tracks, and we might find it hard to get the horse owners here. But by next year I think conditions will change, and while I don't know just what is gong to transpire, it may be necessary to open carlier-and close later: that is, if more local tracks will operate. Conditions may improve so much as to make it possible to conflict with one or more of the Maryland tracks without any disadvantage to either, because there would be enough lorses to race at both places. We could race at travessend at short notice, but really I can't say this knowing that be d

OAKS CANDIDATES WORK AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 4.—It was a fine morning and many visitors flocked to the Kentucky Association course. The track was fast and was fairly alive with horses, but no particularly impressive work was observed. J. O. Keene, with a view to giving Fred A. Forsythe's Oaks candidate La Patrie a tryont, sent her a mile in company with Senator J. N. Camden's One Step, also a candidate La Patrie a tryont, sent her a mile in company with Senator J. N. Camden's One Step, also a candidate La Patrie to Oaks and expressed disappointment at the result. They went the mile together in 1:45%. One Step giving La Patrie thirty pounds. Jack Adkins sent his Oaks candidate. Sea Shell, three-quarters in 1:18 and it was considered a good move. Derly candidates at work were:

Tetau, three-quarters in 1:16, Commonada, a mile in 1:44, and Marion Goosby, a mile in 1:45%.
Other moves worthy of note were:

Radinage—Mile in 1:43%.
Rayberty Candle—Five-eighths in 1:96.

San Vega—Five-eighths in 1:04.
I' Steppa—Mile in 1:44.
Judge William H. Shelley arrived at Louisville from Juarez last night and this morning phoned that he will be here tomorrow noon to take up his duties as racing secreary.
R. L. Baker, a member of the executive commit the of the Kentucky Association, stated this morning that an effort to make the purchase of a piece of land adjacent to the track to be added to the stable ground had failed, but that still another stable ground had failed, but that still another stable will be erected within the inclosure, which will give the plant about 700 stalls. A new sprinkling wagon has been added to the track equipment. The painter

HAVANA SEASON TO END TODAY.

Havana, Cuba, April 4.—The track at Oriental Park was in a bit better condition today than it was yesterday. A six-race card was decided, with fairly formful results in spite of the adverse track conditions. The meeting will come to a close tomorrow with the running of a six-race card following the Johnson-Willard match. The horsemen still remaining here will lose no time in returning to the United States after the close of the meeting.

TWO THOROUGHBREDS KILLED AT JUAREZ.

George Oxnard and Mike Donlin Lose Their Lives During Running of Opening Race.

During Running of Opening Race.

El Paso, Tex., April 4.—Two thoroughbreds lost their lives as the result of a mishap that attended the running of today's opening race at Juarez. The six-year-old horse George Oxnard, belonging to Mrs. M. Estill, while racing in a forward position in the stretch, stumbled and fell. He struck a fence post with such force as to break his neck and cause Instant death. Mike Donlin, another veteran, carrying the colors of J. Durkee, fell and broke a leg in two places. He was destroyed at once, to relieve his misery. Ceos, another of the rear division, also went down, but escaped injury. Of the jockeys involved, Brazel was slightly bruised, while Feeney and Thomas escaped with a shaking up. The mile handicap that served as the particular feature of the program gave John Reardon the opportunity of winning anotaer purse for Roy Martin. The old gelding came from behind to score an easy victory over Beulah S., which had been leading by a margin of several lengths during most of the running. John Reardon was a well supported favorite. Other first choices that scored during the afternoon were Zim and Seneca.

A telegram was received from Secretary J. O. Talbott of the Colorado Fair and Racing Association to the effect that the foot and mouth disease quarantine of Colorado does not apply to thoroughbreds and that other quarantine restrictions and tests have been lifted owing to the known healthfulness of the horses that are coming from Juarez. The stables of Yeoman & Canda and B. A. Ballentine left for Denver yesterday. J. W. Murphy and E. T. Miller will leave next Thursday with their strings.

A big crowd saw today's racing.

GOSSIP OF KENTUCKY STABLES.

GOSSIP OF KENTUCKY STABLES.

Lexington, Ky., April 4.—P. M. Civill, of Owensboro, Ky., has a string of seven useful horses at the Kentucky Association track. The veteran of the barn is Garneau, now seven years old, which Mr. Civill sold during the New Orleans meeting to James T. Looney of this city. The others, all owned by Mr. Civill, are Robert Kay. Mockery, Buck Keenon, Star Actress, Investment and Object. The last named two are two-year-olds, the former a filly by Frontenac—Jennie Wade and the latter a colt by Charles Edward—Mamena. Investment won at New Orleans, but Object has not been to the post as yet.

C. K. (Slim) Moore is training four three-year-olds for L. Weiss, of Chicago. The star of the string is Stalware Helen, a slashing chestnut filly by Stalwart—Helen Miller, by Jean Bereaud. She won $$3.180 in purses last season and is eligible to the Ashiand Oaks, which is to be run during the Kentucky Association meeting, and likewise to the Kentucky Association meeting, and likewise to the Kentucky Association meeting, and likewise to the Kentucky Jerby, which will be the feature of the opening day, May S, at Churchill Downs, The others are Ed Weiss, bay colt by Stalwart—Absent Friend, an English mare: Miss Clara, chestnut filly by Stalwart—Navarre's Hope (sister to Fondness), by Henry of Navarre, and Aimee Lexile, chestnut filly by Pink Coat—Senta (dam of Jolly), by Flying Dutchman. Albert Luzader bought all four of these horses at the Kentucky Sales Company's auction here in September, 1913, as yearlings, for an aggregate of $710. Miss Clara is the only maiden among them.

W. H. Snearley is training Business Agent, Mose Irvine and Paymaster for Alex B. Gordon, Paymaster is a good looking two-year-old brown colt by Galveston—Nun, which was a winner at New Orleans, Business Agent and Mose Irvine is a maiden.

A. L. Austin, in addition to the Derby candidate Commonada, has three others to race in the colors of R. J. Austin, they being Indolence, Salon and the two-year-old Titlo. a brown colt by Pr. Leggo

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Both Russia and Germany are pouring masses of fighting men into the great struggle in the Carpathiaus. An Easter ukase issued by Emperor Nicholas has summoned to the Russian colors a new class of twenty year old recruits numbering 585,000 men. These men in normal times would not have been called for army service until 1916. Germany is sending reinforcements to Hungary to support the hard pressed Austrian armies, and with the renewal of the Russian offensive in Russian Poland also has withdrawn troops from Belgium to strengthen the eastern front, according to dispatches from Holland. These facts are taken as indicating that the great battle for possession of the Carpathian passes leading into Hungary is approaching the decisive stage. The invasion of Hungary by the Russians, with a possible early ending of the war, may hinge on the outcome. The Muscovites are continuing their desperate efforts to force the Uzsok and Lupkow passes and on the outcome of these operations the Russian army whica penetrated the Dukla pass is waiting, entrenched on the southern slopes to the Hungarian plains. Seemingly the Russians have had considerable success, for Petrograd announces that fierce fighting is proceeding near Smolnik, midway between the Lunkow and Uzsok passes, and that the Russians have region of both passes. The Austrian official statement admits that the Austrian armies have been forced back in some of the mountain regions and the dispatches of Austrian correspondents at the front carry a tone of misgiving. Petrograd also reports that the Germans are being driven back in Poland and that the Russians are forcing the Austrians back into Bukowina.

Whether by government inspiration or on their own initiative, several London papers appeared with with land forces.

At every point along the Franco-Flanders battle front in the last forty eight hours the attempts of the allies to make gains have failed, according to an official statement from the German war office. The Belgians made an unsuccessful attempt to win back the hamlet of Klosterhock, near Dixmude which was occupied by the Germans four days ago. In Le Petre forest, northeast of St. Mihiel, the French made desperate efforts to regain ground lost in the fighting earlier in the week, but were thrown back. The French are renewing their attacks in

The following official communication was issued at Constantinople: "On March 31 a British cruiser bombarded the Lorough of Mowilah, at the head of the sea on the Hadjas corst and attempted to land troops. After being repulsed the cruiser returned the next day and renewed the bombardment for five hours, damaging some houses. The enemy again atter-pted to land troops, but was repulsed by our trops and volunteers. The cruiser then retired. There was no loss of life on our side. Some bestile mine sweepers attempted to approach the straits, but retired before our fire. Two warships which protected them unsuccessfully bombarded the straits from afar and retreated."

The American steamer Greenbrier, from New York, which struck a mine in the North sea and sank a few hours after it left Bremen, is the third American vessel destroyed by mines in the North sea. The Evelyn was blown up off Borkum island on February 21 with a reported loss of three men while en route to Bremen with a cargo of cotton. The Carib was sunk by a mine off Norderney on February 23. One of its crew died from exposure. The Greenbrier's crew escaped.

The Greenbrier's crew escaped.

An official communication issued by the French war office follows: "On Saturday at Bompierre, to the southwest of Peronne, we continued to make satisfactory progress with our mining operations. Near Lassigny the Germans attacked and attempted to debouch. They were stopped short by our fire as they were sallying forth from their trenches, in upper Alsace, in the region of Burnhaut Le Haut, we repulsed two German attacks."

Vivoton inches of snow fell, in Philadelphia

Nineteen inches of snow fell in Philadelphia Saturday, breaking all records for any twelve hours in the history of the federal weather bureau there. The disturbance was general from Maine to Florida, with the heaviest gales between New York and the Coast as South Carolina.

As a result of intimations from Germany that their presence was no longer desired with the army at the front, all American military observers have been ordered home by Secretary of War Garrison. It is officially denied at Vienna that Austria has opened negotiations with Russia for a separate peace.

HUGH PENNY DIES AT BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Md., April 4.—Hugh Penny, in his day a successful jockey, and of recent years a prominent trainer of the racing thoroughbred, died last night in a local hospital to which he was taken a day or two ago for treatment for a severe case of pneumonia and pleurisy. The deceased, besides being a skilful man with a horse, developed a number of successful jockeys, the latest being J. McTaggart, who, under his tutelage, headed the American jockey list for 1914. The deceased at one time owned several thoroughbreds, but none at the time of his death. King Avondale, Thrifty, Eagle Bird, Irish Kild, Brynlimah and Fathom were among those that recently raced in his colors. He was well liked by his associates on the turf and there will be much regret among turfmen generally over his untimely demise.

untimely demise.

The death of Hugh Penny will bring a pang of sorrowful regret to many in Chicago, for here "Hughie" was well known and well liked. Much of his work in the saddle was done over Chicago tracks, and when in his prime he enjoyed the confidence of a host of followers. As a rider he ranked high, especially in sprint racing. He had no superior in the art of keeping his mounts cool while at the post and getting them away like a flash at the starter's signal. Like "Tod" Sloan he was almost uncanny in his control of horses unruly at the post for other riders. Ed Corrigan's nervous mare, Helter Skelter, would fly into a rage at the mere sight of "Monk" Overton, and give all concerned an unhappy time at the post. But if Penny was to ride she showed her friendly satisfaction as plainly as a horse possibly could, and for him was as placid as an old sheep at the post, For all his alertness at the post he gave starters no trouble and rode fairly in his competition with other riders. Penny was a friendly soul and taught many youngsters how to ride successfully. Sam Doggett was almost hopeless in everything pertaining to jockeyship, except his ability to ride a good finish, and was more likely to be left at the post than to get his mounts away with the others. But Penny became chummy with him and speedily made him one of the best jockeys of his time. Caywood and Soden were two more Chicago riders of skill who owed much to his friendly tuition.
